Saginaw Contractor To Lead Statewide Construction Association

Plymouth, Mich.—The Associated General Contractors (AGC) of Michigan today elected Trace Hendrick, project director of Saginaw-based R.C. Hendrick & Son as chairman of the association’s board of directors. AGC is Michigan’s leading full-service association for commercial building construction firms.

“I am honored and humbled to follow in the footsteps of both my grandfather and father in leading this proud and historic organization,” said Trace Hendrick. “As a fifth generation owner of a construction company, I have a unique understanding of what contractors in Michigan face and how AGC can lead them into the future.”

As project director for R.C. Hendrick & Son, Mr. Hendrick has lead projects for his company throughout the state of Michigan for over 20 years. Trace has been active in AGC Michigan for some time, including serving on several union pension and health care funds. Mr. Hendrick is a graduate of the University of Notre Dame and lives with his wife Kelly and two children in Saginaw.

Serving alongside Mr. Hendrick as 2020 officers of the AGC of Michigan are vice chairman Andy Wasiniak of Walbridge in Detroit, and treasurer Sam Clark of Clark Construction Company in Lansing.

The AGC of Michigan is a full service construction trade association providing safety, education and training, legislative & regulatory advocacy, human resources, labor relations options, construction information, and affinity programs. AGC members are dedicated to skill, integrity and responsibility. For more information, visit www.agcmichigan.org.
